Enterprise Zone Tax Credits

What is an Enterprise Zone Tax Credit?

The purpose of the Enterprise Zone Tax Credit is to encourage taxpayers to assist agencies like Alternatives to Violence. Alternatives to Violence and its future Safehouse are both located within an enterprise zone. Donations to ATV go further as tax credits are available.

How does it work?

Cash gifts from $100 to $400,000 qualify for the tax credit. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount given (up to a maximum of $100,000 per year) may be claimed as a Colorado tax credit. Excess credits can be carried over up to five years.

Benefits to the Donor

In addition to the tax credit, cash gifts may also qualify as tax deductible charitable donations for federal and state income tax returns. At the same time charitable deduction and tax credits are available, 100% of your gift goes to either ATV or the future Safehouse. Pass-through entities, such as Partnerships and Subchapter S Corporations, can also make donations. A donation by a pass-through entity is not subject to the $400,000 annual dollar limitation described earlier. Instead, this limitation is applied to each of the individual shareholder/partners. Each member's share of the donation is passed through to that member, who then computes the allowable credit on their tax return.

EXAMPLE: Rocky Mountain Widgets, Inc., a Subchapter S Corporation, makes a $50,000 donation to the ATV or the Safehouse Capital Campaign. The corporation has 4 shareholders who each own 25%. When Rocky Mountain Widgets files its income tax return, it will allocate a $12,500 charitable donation to each shareholder. Each shareholder will be able to deduct this donation on their federal tax return, and claim a $3,125 Colorado tax credit ($12,500 x 25%).

Tax Savings Example

Donor is in the 35% federal income tax bracket, itemizes his or her deductions and is subject to the Colorado 4.63% state income tax.

Gift	$500	$10,000	$100,000
Federal tax savings from donation	- 175	- 3,500	- 35,000
Colorado tax savings from donation	- 23	- 463	- 4,630
Colorado Enterprise Zone tax credit	- 125	- 2,500	- 25,000
After-tax cost of gift	$177	$ 3,537	$ 35,370

In these examples, Donor receives nearly 65% of their gift back in the form of federal and state income tax savings! Visit www.alternativestoviolence.org to make a pledge on-line.
